When it comes to sending something in a pinch, having a network of the best and most creative florists around the world is Colin Cowie's secret weapon. Here, his little black book of who to call.

Djordje Varda, France and St. Barts

"One of the most passionate and romantic floral designers that I've had the privilege and pleasure to work with. His floral compositions are always vibrant and daring." djordjevarda.com

Jeff Leatham, Beverly Hills, Paris, Philadelphia

"Jeff reinvented floral design with his signature style. Bold and large-scale, his magnificent installations have often been copied, but never duplicated." jeffleathamflowers.com

Prunus in a vase shaped from veneer wood by Tomas de Bruyne

TOMAS DE BRUYNE, BELGIUM

"Tomas builds large-scale floral masterpieces. He is a true philosopher who tells his story through flowers." tomasdebruyne.com

“Florals are obviously a big part of my life, whether I’m planning an event, entertaining at home, or sending friends arrangements to celebrate important moments.”

A wedding by Roni Floral Design at Hotel du Cap-Eden-Roc in Cap d’Antibes

RONI FLORAL DESIGN, CAP D’ANTIBES

“The superstar of European floral decor. There is no such thing as enough, and no detail is too small. Roni and his team are very flexible and accommodating—a true pleasure to collaborate with.” roni-floral-design.com

Heike Hayward used delphinium and willow to mimic the natural effect of wisteria.

FLEUR LE CORDEUR, CAPE TOWN

“Fleur le Cordeur’s Heike Hayward is nature’s princess. She understands how to use everyday foliage in unique and unexpected ways. She can transform a weed into an exotic orchid.” fleurlecordeur.co.za

David Beahm, New York

“A stalwart of floral design in America, David is incredibly versatile. His work spans massive installations for brands like Christian Dior and Louis Vuitton to the most romantic floral arrangements. He is a true artist and renaissance man.” davidbeahm.com

Sandra de Ovando, New York, Southampton, Miami, West Palm Beach

“The queen of contemporary floral design. Her style is modern, edited, and luxe.” ovandony.com

DANIEL OST, BELGIUM

“He is both a minimalist and maximalist. While Daniel uses very limited materials, his larger-than-life contemporary installations are breathtaking.” en.danielost.be
